ADORATION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT

First Friday of the month after 8:00 a.m. Mass (Church)

FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME - July 05, 2026

The First Reading... indicates that the humility asked for by Jesus is the kind that he himself endured, for he came in meekness and without pageantry, yet his dominion would be to the ends of the earth. The example of the humble servant is the very person of Jesus himself who invites us in the second part of the gospel to come to Him for refreshment and rest.

The Second Reading... contains one of the most important yet often misunderstood themes of St. Paul. Flesh and spirit mean the whole man and the whole man stands in need of redemption by Christ. The vocation of the Christian, both "body" and "soul," is to conform his already redeemed person to the same Spirit he has already received at baptism.

The Gospel... Pagans and Jews had the same hardships of life to face as we have, and even greater ones. Their illnesses were more frequent and less bearable than ours, for they had not the medical helps that we have. Death came to young and old then as it does now, but for them it was a final parting from loved ones, and no hope of a future happy meeting served to lighten their sorrow. There was no shining star in the heavens to beckon them on or give them hope.

Surely God is good to us, to put us into this world at this day and age, and give us the light of faith, and the knowledge of God and of His loving plans for us, which make the burdens of this life so relatively light and even so reasonable for us. We still have to earn our bread. We still have sickness and pains. We still have death stalking the earth, but unlike the people before Christ we now see a meaning to all these trials.

The yoke of Christ is not really a yoke but a bond of love, which joins us to Him, and through Him, to our loving Father in heaven.

The rule of life which He asks us to keep, if we are loyal followers of His, is not a series of prohibitions and don'ts. It is rather a succession of sign-posts on the straight road to heaven, making our journey easier and safer. He does ask us to carry our cross daily, that is, to bear the burden of each day's duty, but once the cross is grasped firmly and lovingly it ceases to be a burden. Ours is a world which is in an all-out search for new idols. It is a world which has left the path marked out by Christ, and forgotten or tried to forget, that man's life does not end with death. To be a Christian and to have the light of faith to guide our steps in this neo-pagan darkness, is surely a gift, and a blessing from God, for which we can never thank Him enough. Thank you, God, for this gift. Please give us the grace and the courage to live up to it and to die in the certainty that we shall hear, as we shut our eyes on the light of this world, the consoling words, "come you blessed of my Father, possess the kingdom prepared for you."

GOD bless us all as we celebrate - 4th of July. IN GOD WE TRUST

For Christians, the 4th of July— widely known as Independence Day...

carries a deeper spiritual meaning beyond national pride and cultural festivities.

It becomes a sacred opportunity to reflect on God as the ultimate source of freedom. Scripture consistently reminds believers that true liberty is not merely political or social but spiritual in nature. Jesus declared, “So if the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed” (John 8:36). This reveals that the highest form of independence is freedom from sin, fear, oppression, and spiritual bondage.
